

K-LOVE is a wonderful resource to our community, and it would be a huge loss not to have their programming. In this day and time, in which we are bombard with consumerism, drug abuse, immorality, and excess (all in the name of entertainment), having a radio station focused on religious principles is a wonderful asset to the public.